Abbey Color Certified Compliant with ChemStewards® Program

Abbey Color announces ChemStewards® certification, completing requirements for their dye manufacturing facility in Philadelphia PA. As a ChemStewards® facility, Abbey Color demonstrates its commitment to environmental, health, safety and security practices and has exceeded the minimum EHS&S compliance requirements for this SOCMA program.

Philadelphia PA (PRWeb) May 7, 2010 - Abbey Color Inc., one of the world's leading dye manufacturers and suppliers of dyes, precursors and colorants located in Philadelphia, PA, announces that they have completed requirements for Tier 1 certification and compliance with the Society of Chemical Manufacturers and Affiliates (SOCMA) ChemStewards® program. ChemStewards is SOCMA's flagship environmental, health, safety and security (EHS&S) continuous performance improvement program. SOCMA created ChemStewards to meet the unique needs of the batch, custom and specialty chemical products industry. As a mandatory requirement for SOCMA members engaged in manufacturing, ChemStewards is helping participants reach for superior EHS&S performance.

Abbey Color is being recognized for its successful efforts to go above and beyond the minimum for federal EHS&S compliance, build customer confidence and community trust, and to strengthen product stewardship.

"Our ChemStewards certification reflects our commitment to adapt and continuously improve our best practices and procedures from an environmental, health, safety and security perspective," explained Roger Nielsen, President and Owner of Abbey Color Inc., "We are very pleased with our accomplishments with the ChemStewards program as this also reflects our commitment to our service leadership approach that prioritizes our employees, our customers, our neighbors here in Philadelphia, and all stakeholders in the company."

"Abbey Color should be proud to be ChemStewards certified," said Lawrence D Sloan, SOCMA's President. "Their customers can rest assured that their business is being handled by a company that makes sound environmental, health, safety and security management a top priority. SOCMA's ChemStewards Program is the only EHS&S program designed specifically for the batch, custom and specialty products industry. Abbey Color's participation indicates their commitment to compliance with federal regulation and building cooperation throughout the supply chain."

SOCMA members manufacture thousands of products annually, from pharmaceuticals to industrial and construction products. SOCMA members produce the building blocks for materials that enhance our lives and enable the manufacture of thousands of other products.
